

Programme 2017

S.O.S. Sometimes On Sunday

SOS is an informal fellowship group that meets around once a month, usually in someone's home. Anyone is welcome to come along.

Activities range from family friendly fireworks to a Christmas Meal and our annual fund raising Easter Breakfast and other stuff besides!

Faith meals are often a central part of our activities – let the hosts know you're coming and bring food and drink to share.

What's on in 2017

Everybody is welcome to our events which all start at 7:30pm unless otherwise stated.

In each case please call the hosts on the number given to let them know you intend to come. All phone numbers are 01296...

- March 25th Roman Evening. Rome, the nation that brought plumbing to the world. We celebrate all things Roman - get your favoured slave to prepare your food to share amongst the other citizens. Senator Nord of Trevor and the Gillian will be our hosts. Hail them on 483157.
- April 16th Easter Sunday Breakfast is now an established part of this special day, it brings as much joy to us who serve as to those who enjoy a full English Breakfast. Served in the Church hall from 9:00am (in plenty of time for you to enjoy the Easter Service). Proceeds will support the work of the Whitechapel Mission and tickets can be obtained from Lynn Bernstone on 420817.
- May 6th SOS on Tour, 'a Taste of India'. Tonight we will meet for the nation's favourite food at the Shensha restaurant on Stoke Road. Curry in a hurry or vindaloo before the loo, every taste is catered for but remember to bring your own drinks! Lynn Bernstone is our co-ordinator on 420817
- June 17th BBQ Father's (a) Day (early). A chance to recognise the wonderful work fathers do for the children of the world or a time to charcoal food until it is barely recognisable! Renowned for his skills on the skillet John Miskin will be happy to grill your favoured meat or veg equivalent. Please speak to Margaret or John on 422919.
- July 8th Posh Picnic. A gentle stroll around a Tring reservoir culminating in a faith picnic to take advantage of the height of the British summer. We will gather at 5pm in the car park by The Bluebells Tea Room at Startops End. Gill Marks is co-ordinating on 748659.
- August 5th Jamaican Evening. As Usain Bolt will be retiring at the end of this month's London World Championships, we acknowledge his great career by eating fast food with a Caribbean twist. Sprint to call the Bernstones on 420817.
- September 30th 60's Evening. Some of us remember the Swinging '60s and some of us are in the Sanatogen generation - either way let us eat food and drink from the era and enjoy the music of the time. It's at the Marks coz they am 60. Wind up the phone to call Gill or Steve on 748659.
- November 4th If you're young or just young at heart then our Family Fireworks at the Kemps' will be just the thing. Sparklers start at 6pm. Bring warming food and we split the cost of the fireworks between the families attending. Phone Viv or Steve on 399315 if you want to know more.
- November 18th Blind (and) drunk! Hide the label of your obscure cheese & wine so your fellow SOS'ers can attempt to guess where it's from and what it's made of. We understand that Aldi now have a range of stoats milk brie, interesting! Call Marilyn or Nick Storer on 622656.
- December 9th SOS Christmas Meal at the Marks', 7:30pm for 8pm. Wear your posh frocks and black ties. Call Gill and Steve on 748659 to find out which course you are providing.
- January 6th 2018 Planning Evening at the Storer's'. Come and help us plan a variety of events for 2018. Let Marilyn or Nick know you're coming on 622656.
- February 3rd 2018 Winter Olympics, South Korea hosts the games this year which gives us the theme for tonight. Skate over to the phone to call Frances or Nick Aylen on 398150.
